

Operational Protocol for Protecting Students and Continuity of In-Person Education (Safe Education)

Goal: To ensure the safety of student and educational staff through clear, consistent, and systematic procedures applied before arrival at the school, during their time on-site, at dismissal and return, and in any situation that requires preventive measures.

Core Principles

- 1 | The safety of student and educational staff is the highest priority.
- 2 | Stay inside protected buildings or protected facilities as much as possible.
- 3 | Avoid windows, glass, and exposed areas.
- 4 | Move to internal and safe areas if needed.
- 5 | Immediate adherence to official instructions.
- 6 | Prevent crowding or uncontrolled movement.
- 7 | Reassure students and avoid spreading panic or fear during alerts.
- 8 | Photography, publishing, or sharing unofficial information during alerts is prohibited.
- 9 | Suspend movement, learning, and dismissal during an alert, and only resume once the alert is cleared.
- 10 | All external activities must be stopped.
- 11 | Educational, administrative staff, and supervisors must be trained on these procedures.
- 12 | Ensure full readiness to immediately suspend in-person learning at any time based on official directives

General Regulations

- 1. Flexibility in morning grace period and consideration for delays due to alerts.
- 2. Use checklists to confirm readiness of educational institutions.
- 3. Return to normal operations only after the alert is cleared.
- 4. Train staff and enhance communication with parents/guardians and relevant authorities.
- 5. Organize movement, entry, and exit to ensure safety.
- 6. Provide and designate internal safe areas for student and staff during alerts.
- 7. School Bus transportation: No government decision has been taken regarding whether bus services will resume at this time. Please ensure that students and parents are being supported and that flexibility is being shown to them regarding attending on time or inability to physically attend.
- 8. Ensure obtaining a signed acknowledgment/undertaking from the parent or guardian to return their student to in-person education.

Operational risk levels

Green (Low Risk/Stable):

- No alert messages. Normal operations.
- Classes held indoors.
- Readiness is enhanced.
- Morning assembly and outdoor activities are suspended.

Yellow (Medium Risk):

- Classes and work continue during alerts with preventive measures.
- Stop movement and shelter immediately.
- Apply preventive actions.

Red (Direct Danger):

- Immediate shift to remote learning and work.
- Do not resume in-person education or use facilities until official approval is given (e.g., if the educational institution is affected in any way).
- Authorities determine levels for educational facilities based on location, proximity to critical infrastructure, or other relevant factors, and mandate the shift to remote learning and work accordingly.

Away from external facades and windows
- 2 | Structural Strength
Reduces impact and blast waves
- 3 | Hazard-Free & Spacious
Safe internally and fits all occupants
- 4 | Fast & Easy Access
Can be accessed within 1 minutes
- 5 | Approved Operational Procedures
Linked to the nursery's emergency plan

Emotionally Supporting Students During Sirens & Loud Sounds

Regulate Yourself First

Take slow, deep breaths
Keep your voice steady and calm
Avoid panic — student read
adult body language instantly

Gather & Reassure

Move student away from windows
Say: "We are safe here together"
Keep the group close to you and to each other

Use Simple, Honest Words

"That was loud, but we are safe"
"The adults are taking care of it"
Normalize: "It's okay to feel scared or surprised"

After the Incident — Recovery & Emotional Support

1 Check In Gently

- Ask calmly: "How is everyone feeling?"
- "Did the sound surprise you?"
- Listen — don't push student to share
- Normalize fear, curiosity, or silence

2 Offer Creative Expression

- Drawing or colouring
- Storytelling or imaginative play
- Role-play / pretend play
- Journaling for older students

3 Restore Routine

- Gradually return to the normal schedule
- Familiar routines rebuild safety & control
- Brief, factual update to parents/caregivers
- Avoid news or scary details near student

4 Signs Extra Support Is Needed

- Excessive fear, crying, or clinginess
- Withdrawal or difficulty concentrating
- Physical complaints (headaches, nausea)
- ← Inform leadership & school counsellor

Operational Requirements

1. Adhere to the inspection checklist issued by the Department of Education and Knowledge for safe operations, and ensure that requirements are continuously met
2. Develop a mechanism for handling incidents, injuries, and fatalities, and for managing communication with parents..
3. Ensure contact details for parents/guardians are up to date.
4. Train educational, administrative, and supervisory staff to demonstrate mature behavior during alerts and avoid panic
5. Assign additional field supervisors and private security, along with training.
6. Assessment of facilities in terms of safe areas, classrooms with limited windows, other safe rooms, or any suitable spaces designated .
7. Moving to safe rooms should take about one minute maximum.
8. Using the emergency public address (PA) system to ensure that alerts reach everyone inside the building as effectively as possible.
9. Safe points must be marked with identification signs and everyone informed inside the building.
10. If a covered area is available (e.g., underground parking), it can be used for drop-off and dismissal zones

THANK YOU!
